Blurb - about the book (a short description of the book to be printed on the back of the cover.)

The Earth have given us
The mountains of thoughts,
Many caves are loaded.
Some in eternity,
Some deep,
Some clever,
Some ignorant.
Sometimes the sleep of mind,
Disturbed by the water,
Flowing from head, bending to look at-
'how far it will fall!'
In dizziness, while a stone falls
On the face of another person,
He curses and
For that he gets a lot of applause,
Echoes;
But when it is darkened from the top,
By the name, 'Are you there, brother!'
Also can call in a sad tone.
Wonder world, surprised you!
If you wear it,-
The light will be fair,
If you don't wear it,-
It will be black!
The mind is in darkness,
Closed from birth;
Give a voice,- 'Is there anyone?
If you find love, I will merge '
Open the window with a hard blow,
With a smile in face.
That sound is :
