Synopsis

This is a story of so called 'Anarjo'; those are not at all interested in civilized world. It is a fiction adventure, in remote jungle surrounded by hill area of some tribes. In general the tribes use their long -knife, flambeau, bow and venomous-arrow, sword, long- spear, lance, stone hammer etc for their own protection. Also they use ropes made by many creepers of jungle. They don't use clothes for cladding themselves. Few of them use bark or plant leaves for clothing. One mentor is always there, who is called 'Pradhan (leader) of the jungle'.

But the present leader is not actually tribe by birth. He is a civilized, but poor human being, came here for job from North East India. He has a sister also along with him in the forest office.

He is all in all to take emergency decision for welfare of jungle. He is also considered as priest of the jungle.

The jungle is divided into two parts by a waterfall. One side is safe for living; another side is dense and not safe. In the living area of jungle there is a tall and huge uncut one stone, treated as The GOD of the jungle. And the worship of The GOD is done by the priest.

All animals and living beings are there, in the jungle. Like- omnivorous, carnivorous, reptiles, fishes, mammals, birds etc. All are free to move unless they hurt anybody for their hunger. It is considered that all living and nonliving beings of the jungle are connected to each other directly or indirectly by the blessing of The GOD.

There are some certain rules, made by the leader to keep peace in the jungle.

One 'Arjo', (civilized) forest officer will come here and gradually he will fall in love of the jungle. He is brave heart and will save an 'Anarjo', (tribe) child from the mouth of the tiger. Then a holy "Homa Joggo" (sacred fire) will happen by the priest, in front of The Jungle GOD, the large stone, to

After that, the recent forest officer, very easily, will win the heart of everybody, even of the leader. Then a holy "Homa Joggo" (sacred fire) will happen by the priest, in front of The Jungle GOD, (the large stone), to destroy all evils from the jungle. At the end this story, the recent forest officer will leave the job and become the leader of the jungle. This is for the welfare and protection of the jungle from the outsiders.

Note: All the characters and events depicted are fictitious. Any similarity to a person living or dead is purely coincidental.
